Your Duty Of Disclosure

When you take out this insurance – before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

What you must tell us when you take out insurance for the first time – If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions. You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

When you renew, extend, vary or reinstate your insurance – If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions. Also, we may give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change. If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change. You have this duty until we agree to renew the contract.

If you do not tell us – If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

General Exclusions And Conditions Of Cover

It is important to understand that insurance policies do not cover every eventuality. You should read your policy and be aware of what is excluded from cover and the conditions to be observed. Please refer to the sections entitled “General Exclusions” (pages 29 to 32) and “Conditions of Cover” (pages 34 to 35).

Joint Policyholders

If more than one insured are named as the joint policyholders, each gives authority to the other to amend or cancel this policy. We may treat any change requested by one of the joint policy holders as coming from all joint policy holders.

Sums Insured

You are responsible for determining the sum insured.

This policy provides for rebuilding, repairing or replacing a damaged home or its contents at their replacement value. It is your responsibility to nominate a sum insured that is sufficient to replace them.

For your home this includes any improvements to the home that may contribute to the costs of rebuilding, and any additional costs associated with rebuilding, such as site works and access restrictions. The services of a professional valuer or building contractor may assist you to determine your home rebuilding cost.

For your contents and personal effects it may be appropriate for you to use the services of a dealer or professional valuer for jewellery, collections, art works and the like. Valuations or receipts for purchase of contents and personal effects items should be kept in a safe location, as you will need these if you need to make a claim.

Automatic Sum Insured Adjustment At Renewal

When your home is insured, we will automatically increase the sum insured shown on your insurance certificate at the end of each period of insurance to allow for an increase in building costs. We will use building industry cost guides as a reference.

When your contents are insured, we will automatically increase the sum insured shown on your insurance certificate at the end of each period of insurance.

You are not required to accept the revised sums insured and can ask us to amend them at any time.

We will not adjust the sums insured for:

- ▶ Specified contents items
- ▶ Specified personal effects items

You will need to review the value of these items regularly to ensure they are insured for the cost of replacement.

You are encouraged to regularly review your sum insured for home, contents and personal effects, and may alter the sum/s insured at any time during the period of insurance, subject to our acceptance and payment by you of any additional premium we request. This automatic sum insured adjustment at renewal does not replace your responsibility for reviewing the sum insured at renewal.

The Cost Of Insurance

The premium we quote for insurance is at our sole and unrestricted discretion. It will be based on the profile of the risk to be covered and any other factors we may choose.

Examples of factors which may affect your risk profile include the sum insured you nominate for your home and contents, the location and construction of the home, the security devices fitted to your home, how the home is occupied, previous insurance experience, and any optional covers that you select.

Other factors may affect the premium you pay. These may include profitability, intermediary commission and any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies that relate to your policy (eg. Stamp Duty, GST and Fire Services Levy).

Any of these factors may change at any time without notice, as may our premiums. If the policy renews, the premium may exceed the premium paid for the previous policy.

Payment Of Premium (Including Charges)

You can pay annually or by instalments. If you choose to pay by instalments the total premium may be higher, and fees will apply. We will tell you both the total annual and instalment amounts, so you will know the difference. Payment details and due dates will be advised to you. You must pay the premium by the due date to have this insurance cover. The total payable includes government charges.

If you do not pay for the policy:

- ▶ if an instalment is overdue by 14 days or more, we can refuse to pay a claim
- ▶ if an instalment is overdue by at least one month, the policy is cancelled automatically without notice to you.

- ▶ the cost to us to repair or replace the property, allowing for any trade discount we are entitled to.

We reserve the right to choose the repairer or supplier to be used.

When it is not possible to repair or rebuild your property with original materials, we will use the nearest available equivalent to the original materials.

We will pay to repair or replace internal blinds or curtains, carpets or other floor coverings but only in the same room, hallway or passageway (area starting and finishing at its nearest walls, doorway, archway or other opening, including changes to the floor or wall coverings) where the loss or damage occurred.

When an item is part of a pair, set, system or collection we will only pay for repair or replacement of the item that has been lost or damaged. The most we will pay is the value that the item has as a proportion of the combined pair, set, system or collection.

We will NOT pay:

- ⊗ to rebuild or repair undamaged property in order to achieve a match with repaired or replaced property
- ⊗ any additional costs to replace materials that are not damaged
- ⊗ for any decrease in the value of any pair, set, system or collection.

We may take over and conduct the defence or settlement of any claim for you or anyone else covered by the policy. We will decide how the defence is conducted or a claim settled. We may decide to represent you or anyone else covered by the policy at any inquest or official inquiry or criminal proceeding.

The most we will pay for any claim for your home is the sum insured shown on your insurance certificate.

The most we will pay for any claim for your contents or personal effects is:

- ▶ the sum insured shown on your insurance certificate
- ▶ the limit for certain items as per the amounts shown in Part B.

If we pay for additional benefits as part of your claim, the most we will pay for each additional benefit is shown in Part B.

If your home, contents or personal effects are stolen or destroyed and we have agreed to pay your claim as a total loss then:

- ▶ we will pay you an amount equal to the replacement value of the property stolen or destroyed or the sum insured on your insurance certificate, whichever is lesser and
- ▶ you must pay the excess and any remaining premium instalments for the full period of insurance and
- ▶ cover under this policy comes to an end and no refund of premium is due, as we have discharged our obligation under this contract.

Excess Payable On Claims

- ▶ Payment of an excess helps to reduce the number of small claims and keep down your insurance premiums
- ▶ An excess is the first amount you must contribute towards the cost of any claim
- ▶ An excess is payable in respect of each incident that results in loss or damage to your home and/or contents
- ▶ If you make a claim, we will tell you whether to pay the excess to a repairer or supplier, directly to us, or whether we will deduct the excess from the amount we pay you.

GST

If you are registered for GST and therefore were entitled to claim an input tax credit (ITC) on your premium, then this ITC entitlement needs to be provided to us each time you make a claim. A full GST entitlement would be a 100% ITC entitlement. If you give us incorrect GST information, we will not be responsible for the GST liability you might incur.

A claim payment made for a total loss will be reduced by GST to the extent of your ITC entitlement, if applicable. Other claim payments may also have your ITC entitlement taken into account.

Any claim payment made where GST is deducted as described above, will be considered to be made in full.

Financial Claims Scheme

The Financial Claims Scheme (FCS) provides protection to certain claimants who make valid claims under 'protected policies' in a situation where the insurer is insolvent.

A person entitled to claim under this policy may be entitled to payment under the FCS in the unlikely event that we become insolvent. However, access to the FCS is subject to eligibility criteria.

You can obtain information about the FCS from the APRA website at <http://www.apra.gov.au> and the APRA hotline on 1300 55 88 49.
